25X1A9a

1. Attached herewith is [REDACTED] report of the cancellation of subject meeting. This action is disturbing both to him and to me.

2. This may be an indication pointing to the incipient deterioration of MDAC. On the other hand it may be a chance occurrence. We believe the former possibility should not be ignored because of our common prior experience in DCN meetings.

3. Both [REDACTED] and I have noted the action agency audience tends to be inattentive to matters not presented by themselves and of a kind as to imply broader action agency responsibilities. This is part of the larger matter of the adequacy of the effort allocated by action agencies to enforcement matters.
